A bespoke memorial will reflect a unique tribute and a visual link between a family and their departed loved ones for years to come. When choosing a memorial certain key elements such as design and use of material are of the utmost importance to create an ever lasting tribute. The brochure is intended to give an insight into the endless possibilities of creativeness that are achievable in stone. All memorials are perfectly sculpted using the finest British and Italian stones by our multi award winning craftsmen who are able to take a design concept through the various stages to ensure the finished memorial will meet the clients individual high expectations.
